

HEATHER YSBRAND

Augusta, GA 30909 • 912-217-0381 • heather.ysbrand@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Results-driven professional with 15 years of customer service and leadership experience, including key-carrying responsibilities and successful completion of the Assistant Manager Assessment. Skilled in team leadership, store operations, and troubleshooting daily systems and technology issues. Holds a degree in Computer Programming, providing a strong technical foundation in system logic, software functionality, and problem-solving. Known for bridging operational needs with technical understanding to improve efficiency, enhance user experience, and support high-performance environments.

Skills

- Order picking
- Warehouse operations
- Teamwork
- Problem-solving
- Shipping and receiving
- Pallet jack operation
- Customer service
- Time management

Work History

Off-Field Captain – Key Carrying Position, 09/2020 to Current

Dick's Sporting Goods – Augusta, GA

- Assisted in organizing and prioritizing freight flow activities.
- Supported team members in loading and unloading materials efficiently.
- Operated equipment for moving freight within the warehouse environment.
- Collaborated with team leads to streamline workflow operations.

Assistant Customer Service Manager, 10/2010 to 07/2019

Bass Pro Shops – Savannah, GA

- Led customer service initiatives to enhance satisfaction and retention rates.
- Developed training programs for new hires, improving onboarding efficiency.
- Analyzed customer feedback data to identify trends and implement improvements.
- Coordinated cross-departmental efforts to resolve complex customer issues promptly.
- Mentored team members, fostering a collaborative and high-performance work environment.

Education

Diploma: Computer Programming, Expected in 12/2026

Augusta Technical College - Augusta, Georgia, GA

Certifications

- Certified Junior Web Developer